

JACQUELINE RIEDER HUD RESUME

SELECTED SOLO EXHIBITIONS

2011- Present “Laundry for Strangers: A Personal Memoir of Creativity, Sexuality & Fury”

Late 2011 Shortly after my show closed at Creighton Block Gallery Wizard arrived in Dream....the Lover from thirty- five years ago escorted me to the well of Kundalini, originating in the second shakra, the Pelvis. The Arrival triggered an eruption from my Psychic Core....Sentient Memory poured through me and my state of direct apprehension of Reality is chronicled in my Art Book.

- 2011 Creighton Block Gallery, Big Sky, MT, August-September “Painting the Wild”
This show of 18 paintings reviewed the thematic progression of my life’s work and how it echoes my love of Nature and my concern for environmental preservation of wild places. It followed a three-year hiatus into administrative management of Keystone Conservation.
